SPEECH OF □
HON. CORRINE BROWN
OF FLORIDA

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Leroy Tyson. He passed away last week after a long illness. He was a Custodian with the Day Cleaning Division of the House Office Buildings. He began his tour of duty with the AOC on August 6, 2007, where he worked around the clock to help maintain the U.S. Capitol buildings. His kindness and great service will be missed.

I got to know Lee when he took care of the hallways and restrooms around my office on the third floor of the Rayburn Building. He was always quick with a greeting and a friendly smile, always willing to go out of the way for whatever I needed.

Lee was a pleasure to see at work and he will be missed.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Tyson family during this difficult time.
