

C. G.
Animals + Birds
Leesburg Va. 2048
C. G.
Dec. 26-21

Mr. Elliott Woods,

Superintendent & Architect of U. S. Capitol.

My Dear Sir,

being affected with the great commendation that the Star wrote up about you it takes me the greatest of Pleasure to Congratulate a man in his supremacy of Success. and I am going to name to you as Gov. Peter of Ind. did to Mr. Allen Dicko, Gov. West Moreland Davis of Virginia, who is running for U. S.
Senate for winter term this & vote for the Farmer Protector, votes for Hon West Moreland Davis, who said he would help me get a job that would qualify me to make good, as you know farming has gone to the bad, so have ruined my farm for the ensuing year, my family Rep. can be obtained in the Dear old Town of Leesburg, Va; Co; Va; That was once the Capital of Va. & by business ability can be obtained by the Business men of the town & Country

Mr. Woods, & have one of the prettiest flocks of sheep & have seen you some time & they would make a great showing on the Capitol grounds they are an extra breed of Hampshire & I have culled them to a nice flock can get a fine selection of fifteen sheep bred to lamb about the tenth of March, & would be glad to furnish the Capitol with a flock of fine sheep bred & raised in Old London, now if you wish please your Honor, I am a young man who wants to build myself up in the world & am willing to start at the root & build up the trunk.
I Remain Most Sincerely,

P. S.

Am keeping your picture which is a nice face.

J. J. Spring
Seesburg Va

P. S. These sheep can be bought - delivered at $25.00 per head